

Red carpet for investors moving from China

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, June 2

UNION MINISTER NITIN Gadkari on Tuesday assured investors, who wish to move their investment from China to India, to address their issues at central as well as state level and provide a business-friendly environment.

Terming the prevailing global sentiment related to China as a “blessing in disguise”, the minister said he will monitor and also take up the requirements of such investors with states to create a friendly investment environment.

“I assure that if you bring ten such proposals, I shall take up to resolve their problems at the level of the central and state governments,” said the minister, adding that red-carpet treatment will be provided to investors.

Addressing the annual session of CII, he urged large industries to clear outstanding payments owed to MSMEs in 45 days.

However, he acknowledged that dues of several large corporates are also stuck with public sector undertakings.

On the hardships faced by migrant labour, Gadkari said, “Regarding the migrant labour, actually the impression which is created by media and other people that our industry is 100% dependant upon migrant labour, but when I went into the details after that the information I received on the basis of that, somewhere it is 10-20%”.

Maha farmers seek rescheduling of old loans

NANDA KASABE
Pune, June 2

FARMERS IN MAHARASHTRA are seeking a rescheduling of their old loans and sanctioning of new crop loans for this kharif season, beginning in a couple of weeks. Agriculture activist Vijay Jawandia has urged the Centre to direct banks to give new crop loans to farmers and reschedule their old loans so that they can stand on their own feet and start on a clean slate from this season. “Farmers across the Vidarbha and Marathwada regions are struggling to get crop loans to buy seeds and fertilisers and prepare for kharif season. While the state government has asked banks to help farmers avail crop loans, farmers say the banks have not been cooperative,” Jawandia said. As farmers have defaulted on their payments, they are being turned away by banks, he said. The kharif season begins in a couple of weeks and the farmers are likely to get money only sometime in October-November when the crop is harvested, he said. Farmers are not seeking loan waivers but rescheduling of old loan and fresh loans to start anew, he pointed out.
